House Bill No. 63

Introduced by Mr. Garrison of Connecticut and Illinois

W. W. Holden, Printer to the State

A BILL TO BE ENACTED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, A. D. 1863, CHAP. 100, ENTITLED "AN ACT TO RELIEVE THE POWERS OF THE COUNTY COURTS FOR THE COLLECTION OF TAXES."

Section 1. It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly, A. D. 1863, That the first section of an act passed at the second extra session of the General Assembly, entitled "an act to enlarge the powers of the County Courts for the collection of taxes," be and the same is hereby amended by striking out all of the first section after the word "provided," and inserting in place thereof the following words, to-wit: "That the tax imposed by the County Courts for the collection of taxes shall be the same upon the one hundred dollars valuation of every thing whose tax is laid thereon as upon other things according to valuation, and upon all other things taxed; the tax shall be in proportion to that which is laid on like property."

Section 2. It is further enacted, That so much of the act as is contained in it relating to the payment of tax, be and the same is hereby repealed, and this act shall be in force from and after its passage.
